Wilkins, W T : German professor : Dec. 1914
(119)

December 7th, 1914

Rev. W. T. Wilkins,

Trenton.

My dear Mr. Wilkins:

Many thanks for your kind letter in which you speak appreciatingly of the stand that I had to take at the Board on Thursday. I am glad that you agree with me. The hardest thing about it is that people who do not agree with you believe that it is an act of disloyalty, whereas it is simply an act of British justice. I hope that we may be able to come through it without any serious effect upon the University.

I am sorry that your son was prevented from joining the first contingent by an attach of pneumonia, and I hope that he is quite well again. This war is a hideous business throughout.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
